CARF Accreditation

In 2010, Licking/Knox Goodwill Industries, Inc., received CARF Accreditation for a period of three years for its Employment Skills Training Services. This is the fifth consecutive Three-Year Accreditation that the international accrediting body has awarded to Licking/Knox Goodwill Industries, Inc.

This accreditation decision represents the highest level of accreditation that can be awarded to an organization and shows the organization's substantial conformance to the CARF standards. An organization receiving a Three-Year Accreditation has put itself through a rigorous peer review process and has demonstrated to a team of surveyors during an on-site visit that its programs and services are of the highest quality, measurable, and accountable.

CARF is an independent, nonprofit accrediting body whose mission is to promote the quality, value, and optimal outcomes of services through a consultative accreditation process that centers on enhancing the lives of persons served. CARF establishes consumer-focused standards to help organizations measure and improve the quality of their programs and services.
