

2.10 Emeritus Trustee

Policy:

It is the policy of Licking/Knox Goodwill Industries Board of Trustees to recognize outstanding Trustees who have successfully completed their term(s) of service and may be elected as an honorary Emeritus Board Trustee.

Procedure:

Trustees who have successfully completed their term(s) of Board of Trustees service may be nominated by a current Trustee of the Licking/Knox Goodwill Industries Board of Trustees.

Nominated Trustees must have demonstrated the following:

- Service beyond self
- High commitment level to organizational goals
- Support of Licking/Knox Goodwill Industries' mission
- Strong leadership
- Proven results that positively impact Goodwill Industries long term

Emeritus Board Trustees must be elected by a majority vote.

Elected Emeritus Board Trustees have the following privileges:

- Right to attend all Trustee meetings
- Right to attend all Board Committee meetings
- Right to participate and contribute in discussions at Committee or Board meetings

Elected Emeritus Board Trustees cannot:

- Make motions at Committee or Board meetings
- Vote on any meeting motions

The term of service for an Emeritus Board Trustee is on going and has no expiration date.

The Licking/Knox Goodwill Industries Board of Trustee reserves the right to revoke the Emeritus Board Trustee status by formal motion and majority vote.