SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

APPLICATION PROCESS

The Foundation will accept applications from April 1 through July 15 and October 1 through January 15 of each year. Applications and supporting documentation must be typed and submitted electronically to info@goodwillnewark.com.

Your application must include:

- Completed Scholarship Application form, signed by yourself and a parent/guardian, if under 18 years old.
- Copy of your most recent GED, high school transcript, or college transcript.
- At least two, completed and signed recommendations from persons other than family.

Funds are limited and the amount available for scholarships may vary each year. Your application will be reviewed and awarded in compliance with Foundation established criteria as approved by the Goodwill Board of Trustees. If selected, you will be notified by mail and asked to complete submit supporting documentation and a Scholarship Acceptance form. Funds will be paid directly to the school at the address you provide, (when applicable) within 60 days of our receipt of your Scholarship Acceptance form. The Foundation does not disburse directly to the applicant. Scholarship awards may be used at any accredited educational institution within the United States. Awards are not renewable; however, students may reapply each year as long as they continue to meet eligibility requirements.

Students wishing to transfer between educational institutions must inform Licking/Knox Goodwill Foundation in writing.

If, for any reason you do not complete your stated program, any refunds of scholarship monies will be returned directly to the Foundation. As a scholarship recipient, Goodwill expects that you will regularly attend and participate in classes, complete all required work, and meet any other requirement for completion or graduation.

Scholarships are awarded without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender, disability, or national origin.

Application Follow Up:

Should you be recommended to receive a scholarship, you will be asked to provide the following information. This will be requested in writing.
